Express Scripts, Franklin Lakes, NJ - Senior Digital Specialist

APRIL 2013 - JUNE 2016

One of the largest and most successful pharmaceutical companies, I was chosen to produce their 2D and 3D video work. Creating private and public videos to increase ROi and company up sells. Being the only digital artist within the entire enterprise brought many challenges, constantly working on high-profile executive animations, videos and simulations.

- Worked with writers and various different departments for animation video needs.
- Single handedly developed high-level video animations for executive symposiums.
- Analyzed strategic messaging and implemented ideas to a storyboard to be approved by senior executive stakeholders and produced high level animation videos for Express Scripts events.
- Instrumental in the polishing and implementation of Express Scripts' visual identity and brand standards.
- Collaborated with creative directors remotely (St Louis, MO) and locally. Infusing the ability to minimize video edits and increasing productivity.
- Added great value to a department which needed more dynamic and effect marketing solutions.

Freelance Artist, NYC - 3D and 2D Freelance Artist

APRIL 2012 - APRIL 2013

- Thinkmodo, New York, NY – This is a viral video company. Hired to design marketing materials to drive sales of Oakley sunglasses and other eyewear. Produced video marketing materials, to be used on YouTube to promote the Oakley brand.
- Robinson Digital: A small company that hires freelancers to produce high end 3D animation commercials and videos. For them I Complete 2 separate “Sketchers” Sneakers commercials providing them with 3D animation, lighting, rendering, render wrangling, texturing, modeling and scene setup.
- Mustache, New York, NY – This is a product marketing company that wanted to improve the design of cell phone charging packs. I directed and produced a promotional video for their customer. Produced comp cards they could present to their client. This work was in Maya and After Effects.
- Citia, New York, NY – This company developed an iPad application that improves the readability of technical literature. I designed all the artwork that accompanies the software, including the app’s animated introduction and instructions.

TEQ, Huntington, NY - Digital Media Manager

JULY 2010 - MARCH 2012

Teq sells computer based SMART boards which can be used for interactive classroom learning.

Worked as a full-time employee.

- Managed the 3D art department and all computer art projects.
- Developed over fifty learning objects (3D heart, World War I soldier, Tyrannosaurus Rex skull, a flu virus model, etc.) for SMART boards and other interactive classroom technologies using Unity and Unreal Development Kit.
- Produced and edited corporate event videos.
- Built up, engineered and produced weekly live webinars. This included purchasing and setting up a video studio. Designed introductory videos, and developed video archives.
- Created a company demo reel used in product demonstrations.
- Designed marketing materials including new company logos for use in print and on the company website.

Freelance Artist, NYC - 3D and 2D Freelance Artist

FEBRUARY 2009 - JUNE 2010

- 321 Launch, New York, NY. This company sells 3D pre-visualizations of what TV commercials will look like when produced. Working as a 3D artist, I created videos that captured the advertising designer’s vision for the commercial. Produced the video using Maya and Motion Builder.
- The Studio NYC, New York, NY. This company also does pre-visualization of TV commercials, and 3D TV commercials which involve animations. This was my longest freelance assignment. Responsible for hiring artists for the 3D development team, managed 3D art projects, oversaw the work of junior artists. Streamlined workflow, developed outsourcing vendors.
- Genki-Oki Studios, New York, NY. This company developed two iPhone and iPad game apps. Hired to design the 3D artwork. Designed human characters and spaceships, using input from the game designers to grasp the look, personality, and skills of the characters. Used Maya, After Effects, and ZBrush to ensure smooth movement of the characters in the games. Designed the artwork/icons, for the games, used in Apple’s AppStore and on the home screen of the iPhone/iPad.
- Panoptic Studios, New York, NY. This advertising agency produces art and videos for TV commercials and movie trailers. Hired to design 3D artwork for Vitamin Water drinks, Lincoln automobiles, Comcast, HBO, and Amazon.com. Designed animations, 3D objects, and elements used in the production of videos. Developed time saving methods for 3D modeling, introducing ZBrush to the company. Developed video effects and animations used in a documentary, and received credits in the movie, “Countdown to Zero”. Used Maya, After Effects, Adobe Creative Suite, and ZBrush.

WebMD, NYC - 3D Artist

FEBRUARY 2007 - JANUARY 2009

This is one of the most popular websites for medical information. The company sells advertising to pharmaceutical and medical device manufacturers. Working as a Lead 3D Designer:

- Worked with drug companies to produce online videos, which contained 3D elements and animations. These were used to educate doctors about prescribing information for popular drugs.
- Helped with the integration of 3D elements into videos.
- Redesigned and enhanced online 2D graphic materials by adding 3D elements.
